MENTORING

• To support volunteer teachers to set goals and outcomes for their own development of learning

• To act as a critical friend and shape teachers to become reflective practitioners as they continue to develop independently through their career
MENTORING AND SUPPORT

- To offer support and to encourage volunteer teachers to manage their own learning.
- To help them realise and maximise their potential.
- To support them to develop knowledge and skills that improve teaching practice.